

West Volusia Youth Baseball Player Protection Request Form

Managers wishing to protect players prior to the division evaluations must secure the written permission of the player's parents or legal guardian. Managers may protect up to 5 players for whom they have protection rights. For information about player protection rules, please refer to the current WVYB League Rules.

Please Note: This form must be completed and returned to the League Commissioner by the due date as instructed by the Commissioner. The League Commissioner will forward the list to the Board of Directors for review and final approval.
